HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

DATES TO JUNE 30.

New York News.

NEW YORK, June 30.—It is stated that the Cuban expedition which sailed from Gardner's Island, near New London, late on Monday night, was captured by gunboats. They are said to be on their way to the Brooklyn Navy Yard, where they will arrive to-day.

Six hundred thousand dollars of the bonds stolen from the Ocean Bank was found this morning in a small trunk on the sidewalk of Elizabeth street by the police.

Edward B. Ketchum, the forger, was brought before Judge Barnard, of the Supreme Court this afternoon, on a writ of habeas corpus. The prisoner claims his release on the ground that he was sentenced for an offense not charged in the indictment. From remarks by the Judge it is generally thought he will discharge Ketchum on bail.

It has leaked out that about $5,000,000 of greenbacks are locked up for the purpose of affecting prices generally.

The Cuban expedition ignominiously failed, three tug boats with over 200 men being captured in Long Island Sound. Two members of the Cuban Junta were among the passengers. Col. Ryan and Gen. Spear, with their respective commands, were not captured. They are supposed to be scattered about Long Island and Connecticut shores. The men are almost exhausted from cold and hunger, having been without food since Sunday and exposed on the open decks to the storm. The prisoners are now receiving Government rations on the receiving ship Vermont.

Chicago Dispatch.

CHICAGO, June 30.—A party consisting of gentlemen representing the business interests of Chicago will leave for San Francisco on Monday next, July 5th, for the purpose of facilitating commercial and reciprocal business with localities made tributary by the completion of the Union and Central Pacific Railroads.

Powder Explosion.

FRANKLIN, PA., June 30.—An explosion of fulminating powder and other explosive compounds, occurred to day at Fowler, Olwell & Toper's factory, wholly demolishing the buildings. Fowler was the only person in the building. He was instantly killed.

From Canada.

OTTAWA, Canada, June 30.—The Privy Council met yesterday. It is understood arrangements were made relative to opening the road to the Northwest. It is reported that John Rose will proceed to Washington on the 18th of July to negotiate a reciprocity treaty.

A hail storm at Woodstock on Monday showered stones from five to eight inches in diameter. Great damage was done.

St Louis Dispatch.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—Governor McClurg has authorised a special armed force to search for and arrest the notorious desperado and murderer, Sam Hildebrand, at San Francisco county. He offers a reward of $10,000 for his arrest.

Important Decision in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 30.—The Supreme Court sustained the legality of the special appropriation bill, passed after the Democrats had left the Legislature, which don't show that a quorum was present.

Miscellaneous.

BOSTON, June 30.—The prohibitory liquor law goes into effect to-morrow.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The Treasury Department has dispatched to New York three steamers with Cuban revolutionists captured in that harbor.

MEMPHIS, June 30.—A tornado passed over this city at 4 o'clock this evening, accompanied by hail and terrible rain, breaking the awnings and uprooting shade trees. A steamer lying at the wharf had her chimneys blown down. A great portion was carried for twenty yards up the levee, over the tops of the highest blocks in the city. No lives were lost as is known, but it is feared the destruction of property and crops has been very heavy.

RICHMOND, June 30.—Last night, in Petersburg, Van Wyck of New York addressed a Republican meeting. Conservatives present called for a division of time, and this not being allowed by the next Radical speaker, it was decided by a call for Conservative speaker. The negroes formed in a body and charged on the whites, driving them away with brick and chasing them through the streets. Nobody was seriously injured.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LISBON, June 29.—Advices from Rio Janeiro to June 8th are received. A revolution had broken out at Montevedio, caused by the disorganized condition of the finances. Carbella had raised the standard of insurrection in the provinces.

LONDON, June 30.—Last evening the House of Lords went into committee on the Irish Church bill, which was discussed during almost the entire session. The amendment of the Irish Church bill was adopted in the House of Lords last night by a vote of 130 to 74. The Earl of Denbigh opened in a long speech. He defended the Irish Catholics from the charge of indifference to the question of disestablishing. He affirmed the Irish regarded it as an act of justice. Earl Gravamond amended the preamble in some slight particular. Earl Granville opposed the proposition for concurrent endowment. He regarded it as entirely impracticable. The Bishop of Oxford regarded the question of disestablishment as already fixed. He thought, however, no portion of the funds ought to be secularized. After providing for church and religious necessities, other bodies ought to be aided. The Marquis of Salisbury supported the principle of concurrent endowment in a long speech. After a long discussion, Earl Gray withdrew his option and the consideration of the preamble was postponed. Earl Carnorvon moved to fix 1872 '73 in place of 1871 as the date of disestablishment. Much discussion ensued and at length the Lords divided and the amendment was carried, for, 130 against, 74. The clauses from Nos. 2 to 12 inclusive were agreed to without discussion.

BREST, June 30.—Advices from the steamship Great Eastern are to Tuesday noon. She was then 920 knots from Brest and had paid out 1028 knots of cable. The signals were improving.

MADRID, June 30.—The Cortes yesterday rejected by a large majority the proposition to increase the duties on foreign cereals.

The New York World is always discovering "Cuban expeditions," which generally turn out to be myths. The World's latest vision of this sort embraced no less than three filibustering steamers—a portentous vision, indeed. The Brooklyn Eagle, commenting on the circumstance, says:

The ethereal reporter has heard a rumor in every breeze, and has smelt out the Junta, conversed with a patriot, visited the recruiting station, saw a trunk with contents unknown, also the officers of the expedition, ascertaining that it would amount to twelve hundred men. The knowing reporter thinks that not more than ten men in the city know anything about this expedition—its vessels, their captains or time of starting. We presume the reporter is quite correct on this point, at least.

PHIL SHERIDAN.—In looks he has changed little during these seven eventful years; his frame is something stouter, his face maturer, and its lines more strongly marked. Most pictures of him are very poor; they make him [illegible] coarse featured and hard featured, and I really know of no other fitting adjective [illegible] Actually, his countenance is very genial and mellow, and his eyes bright and full of feeling. He has a singularly sweet voice, low, rich and well modulated. Old comrades in arms tell of scenes in which his eyes fairly lightened, and his voice thundered in strange oaths; but, as a host, his bearing is the perfection of breeding. One who met him simply as a citizen and a stranger, would say, "Here is a man of ideal manners, of the frank simplicity, the heartiness, the self forgetfulness, the perfect ease which, so far as manners can, constitute the modern gentleman.—A. D. Richardson.

Confedrit X Roads cannot be said to be, in the Northern sense uv the term, a prosperous town. The fact is, its rail road facilities are not uv the best, the nearest one bein some twelve miles away, and its other roads are not so gorgious as cood be desired. They are passable for wagons in June, July and August, for mules in April, May, September and October, and the balance uv the time they mite possibly be navigated by flat boats if the citizens hed enny thing to leave the town for, or if anybody partikerly desired to come to it.

The citizens, now that they are once agin in full akkord with the General Government, and been thoroughly reconstructed, felt that they hed borne their neglect in silence ez long ez cood be expected uv the impetuous Southern nacher; and also, that the time had come when the leading cities uv the South shood make some effort to avail themselves uv the nateral advantages uv their position, and wrest from the North the full share uv the trade uv the continent, to which they are entitled. We uv the Cross Roads felt that we hed too long accepted a second rate commershel posishen, and we felt that we cood not endoor it longer. It wuz, therefore, resolved to hold a commershel convenshen at the Cross Roads, to take these matters into considerashen, with sich others ez mite suggest themselves.

Invitashens wuz sent to all the principle leaders uv the Southern masses, and uv em it wuz confidently expected that Breckinridge, Lee and Boregard would be present.

The Convenshen assembled on the day sot. It wuz one uv the largest and most enthusiastic it hez ever bin my lot to attend. There wuz delegates present from Secessionville, Davistown, Boregard, and all uv the towns in that section uv the State, representing the intelligence and wealth uv the real old Kentucky stock uv these localities.

General McDingus, late C. S. A., uv Secessionville, wuz made President, with thirty-two Vice Presidents, wich comprised all uv the delegates present. This wuz done ez all uv em seemed to want to be officers.

General McDingus stated the object uv the Convenshen to be the devishen uv the means to increase the commershel importance of the section, to develop her resources, to increase her manufaktern interests, and to show the recooperative power the South possesses. Kentucky wants manufakters, Kentucky wants commerce, Kentucky wants populashen, and to devise means uv gettin these is the object uv our assemblin. He begged the members to commence to wunst.

Kernel McPelter, from the Committee on invitashens, wuz about to proceed to read letters he had received from prominent Southerners, when Captain Podgers, of Davistown, begged leave to offer a resolution. He saw sittin in the Convenshun with as much assurance ez tho he hed a rite there, a wretch with whose name he woodent sully his mouth, who had come from Massychoo—no, he woodent sully his mouth with the name uv that State—from a abolishen State, and hed started in Davistown a factry for making pig iron; employin therein thirty five men, which hed bot a plantashun uv a distrest plater and put thereon twenty houses, a skool house and a church! He stigmatized this man ez a carpet-bagger. He hed been respectedly warned by the citizens uv Davistown to leave, but he hed laft at the warnins. On threatenin his factory, he armed his operatives with double barreled shotguns, and with these he held the citizens at bay. This man hez strength enuff to keep up his factry, but he shell not sit in Convenshen with Southern gentlemen.

Major Bangum remarked that at Boregad they hed a different way uv meetin these difficulties. A carpet-bagger from Pennsylvany undertook to start a store at Boregard, but we niped it in the bud at the beginnin. We gave him twenty-four hours to leave, and he left. Had Captain Podgers commenst in time, afore the evil took root, it cood hev been eradicated.

Deekin Pogram statid that an attempt hed bin made to plant a cotton factry on a water-power at Confedrit X Roads, and gave in detail the method adopted to prevent it, both speeches bein receered with cheers, which showd that the Southern heart wuz ez Suthren ez ever.

Captain Podgers offered the followin resolooshen:

"Resolved, That all carpet baggers be requested to leave the hall durin the session uv the Convenshen."

It wuz carried with loud applause, after wich Captain McPelter read the letters he hed received, or rather passed em over to me to read, ez I do most of it for the Corners.

Jefferson Davis—President Davis—I exclaim ed, ez I rist the letter, regretted that he cood not be present. His heart still beat for the Sunny South.

I cood git no further with the readin uv this epistle. The most enthusiastic and vociferous cheers it hez ever bin my lot hear broke from the throng in the buildin, Captain McPelter endin with the genooine Southern chargin yell, at which the niggers in the vicinity of the buildin grew pale and took to the woods. They'd heard it before, and not being advised that the meetin was purely a Commercial Convention, they wuz seriously affrighted.

General Boregard regretted that he could not be present, but—

Agin I wuz interrupted by cheers wich made the very roof shake, and the members uv the Convention threw up their hats to an extent wich fairly darkened the air.

Letters wuz attempted to be read from other noted leaders uv the South in the late unpleasantness with the vandals of the subjugatin States, but at the menshun uv each uv their names the cheerin wuz so extraordinarily vociferous ez to prevent anything bein heard.

At this pint while the enthusiasm wuz at the highest pitch, Deekin Pogram rit and remarkt that Confedrit X Roads wuz, be wuz ware, painfully deficient in many things. They hed but one store and that wuz run by a despicable carpet bagger, and Bascom's whisky wuz not allus uv the best, but one thing she cood boast uv, namely, her wimmen. "Stand up, Mirandy!" he remarkt to that gushin damsel, "and the others in the gallery may ez well rise likewise," wich they all did, wavin Confedrit flags and bustin out into that ever inspirin anthem, "The Bonny Blue Flag." "There," remarkt the Deekin, "there is our jewels. Three cheers for our daughters."

The effect uv this wuz somewhat spiled by a dozen or more quadroons risin with Mirandy and the rest uv em. The ejus, demoralizin villin Joe Bigler, who delites in spoilin techin tablous, had em brung in the gallery at the time, and he sprung em onto us thus cruelly.

General Belter, uv Boregard, offered a resolushun denouncin the reconstruckshen measures, President Grant and his Cabinet, the oppressive nashnel debt, carpet baggers, and the Republican party. Major Bangum offered one implorin the Northern Democracy to stand firm agin the Constooshnel Amendment. Captain McPelter one insistin on the revokashen uv all laws bearin onto those who had served on the side uv States' rites durin the recent delusion uv States' all uv wich wuz adopted enthoosiastically, when the convenshen adjourned sine die.

The delegates congratulatin each other on the noble work that had bin done for the South that day, [illegible] a pertin drink at Bascom's at the expense uv [illegible] wich Bascom wood not set out [illegible] who hed ['and] with not more than two mortgages on wood make [illegible] responsible for em, and wuz a gettin into [illegible] dust out from their respective [illegible] when one uv em remarkt:

"We've forgot one thing."

"No we hevn't," remarkt Genera. McDingus. "We've done everything usual at Southern commershel convenshens. We've cheered for Davis and Boregard; we've admired the women demanded the abolishun party, and demanded our rites—wot more was there to do?"

"We hain't said a cussed word about commerce."

"Thunder!" remarkt the General "its a fact. Do let it slide, it's my mem'ry entirely. We must assemble agin."

And the meetin was agin convened.

The work wuz accomplished in short order. Resolooshens wuz passed demandin the buildin uv a railroad by the General Government from Davistown to Secessionville, and four different lines uv road to the Pacific, with branches endin at Confedrit X Roads, Secessionville, Davistown, Boregard, and sich other towns ez mite consider it to their interests to hev em. In addition to these, it wuz demanded that dredges be taken from the harbors on Lake Erie and other Northern waters, and kept twelve months in the year at work in Camp Run to keep it navigable to the Ohio river for boats uv all classes. A resolooshen wuz offered, demandin uv the Government the buildin of a levee around Deekin Pogram's farm, a part of which is frekently overflowed in the spring and fall, and also the gravlin or plankin uv the roads in the county but it wuz considered best to withdraw these, ez they didn't feel like askin too much at wunst. Other resolooshens wuz passed demanding recompense for the loss of niggers and property destroyed during the war, in order that there might be that harmony so much to be desired between the Government and Kentucky, and the meetin adjourned, this time for keeps. If these acts uv justis is done, well and good if not, Kentucky protests. The Convenshen hez hopes uv results followin its ackshen.

Insane Asylum Matters.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY OREGONIAN

In the issue of the Daily Herald of June 30th, there appeared an article in relation to the Insane Asylum. It was a minority report of the Grand Jury of Multnomah county, signed by two of the seven persons composing that body. I have merely to say that the condition of any person under my charge in the Asylum is at all times subject to the examination and inspection of his or her friends, and that I give my consent to and court an investigation of the state of mind of all those unfortunates under my charge, by a committee of competent physicians, to be appointed by His Excellency, the Governor. I deny that the persons named in said minority report are sane, and assert that they are not even convalescent. One person has been turned out as cured since said report whose name was not mentioned therein, and a number of others are improving, and in all probability, will be discharged in a reasonable time. The certificate of the examining physician, the person authorized by law to examine into the sanity or insanity of patients confined in the Asylum, made since the minority report of the Grand Jury is hereto appended.

Yours, &c., J. C. HAWTHORNE,
Physician of the Asylum.

I hereby certify that I have made my official visit since the minority report of the Grand Jury was submitted to the Court of Multnomah county, and have made a special examination of the patients named in said report as being sane and of sound mind; being illegally detained by the resident physician, Dr. J. C. Hawthorne, and upon a thorough examination, find said patients still insane and not convalescent, but in the same condition they were on their first admission, and it would be altogether injudicious to discharge them at this time to the annoyance of the community and injury to themselves. Further, that there is not at this time any patient in the Asylum whose mind is fully restored or should be discharged.

J. S. GILTNER, M. D.,
Inspecting Physician Oregon Insane Asylum.

Pressure no Force.

We see new evidence every day of the necessity of the distinction, to which we have several times called attention, between the terms weight, pressure, force and power. By weight we mean simply a certain amount of ponderable matter. This may exert a pressure proportional to its weight; but a spring, either of steel or of compressed gas, may also exert a pressure; and in neither case is any force produced unless there is motion; that is, unless the weight descends, the spring uncoils, or the gas expands: a certain number of pounds may therefore be adopted as the measure of pressure, but to call it a force of 10, 20 or 100 pounds, as the standard works on mechanics are still doing, is a grave error which should be corrected.

We speak of a pressure of 40 pounds to the square inch in a steam boiler; and nobody would call this a force of 40 pounds, yet manuals of mechanics habitually talk about forces of so many pounds, and we are so accustomed to this expression that we do not always notice its inaptness. The idea of force includes that of motion; 100 pounds moving two feet exerts double the force of 100 pounds moving one foot in the same time; and, in general, we compare different forces by multiplying the weights into the distance they respectively move in a given time.

We have remarked before that this confusion of pressure with force has given rise to many attempts at perpetual motion, and other absurd mechanical contrivances. The last one we have heard of is a repetition of the attempt to utilize the upward pressure of the sea on the bottoms of floating vessels for the purpose of propelling them. The person who has made this alleged discovery is said to be an intelligent man, but he reasons on the hypothesis that force and pressure are equivalent terms; and his false premises lead him, of course, to a false conclusion. The upward pressure of water on the bottom of a vessel is equal to the weight of the vessel; so long as the equilibrium is maintained there is no motion. If the vessel is allowed to sink, the force of the sinking may be, in part, converted into propelling force, as it requires no great ingenuity to change the direction of a force. The vessel may be made to go forward as long as it continues going downward: but then it will take just as much force to raise it as it has exerted in sinking, and this force might better have been applied directly to produce forward motion. It is exactly like sliding down a hill on a sled and then pulling the sled up again.

It is unfortunate that our school books do not explain these matters in a plain, common sense way, so that boys might get as clear notions as possible of mechanical principles as well as of grammar. It would save much valuable time and prevent many bitter disappointments.—American Journal of Mining.

ROW IN NEVADA.—A California paper says:

The legislature of Nevada at the last session, after segregating White Pine county, passed a law permitting the county of Elko to be segregated from Lander, and to be organized, if at a certain time 1,000 voters were registered within the limits of the proposed county. On the 20th of May, 1,097 voters had been registered, the Lander county officials in the mean time refusing poll tax receipts to the voters who sought to be registered. The Elko men having carried the day, the Lander county officials appeared on the ground with challenges for upwards of 100 of the voters by which it was expected that the registry would be cut down to less than the requisite number of 1,000 voters. The Elko men then went after the Lander county officials, every one of whom were forced to hide themselves from the wrath to come.

Whatever you have to say, my friend,
Whether witty, or grave, or gay,
Condense as much as ever you can,
And say in the readiest way;
And whether you write of rural affairs,
Or particular friends in town,
Just take a word of friendly advice —
Boil it down.

For if you go spluttering over a page
When a couple of lines would do,
Your butter is spread so much you see
That the bread looks plainly through;
So when you have a story to tell,
And would like a little renown,
To make quite sure of your wish, my friend,
Boil it down.

When writing an article for the press,
Whether prose or verse, just try
To utter your thoughts in the fewest words,
And let them be crisp and dry.
And when it is finished and you suppose
It is done exactly brown,
Just look it over again, and then
Boil it down.

For editors do not like to print
An article lazily long,
And the general [illegible] does not care
For a couple of yards of song.
So gather your wits in the smallest space
If you'd win the author's crown,
And every time you write, my friend,
Boil it down.

Important Facts!!!

THE CAPITAL STOCK
—OF—

THE PACIFIC
MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.,
OF CALIFORNIA,

IS PAID IN,
IN GOLD COIN!!
—AND—
Cost Nothing to be INSURED!

This is Additional Security, Without Cost to the Insured, that the Capital Stock bears its own Interest!

THE PUBLIC CAN ACQUAINT ITSELF WITH the business reputation and standing of the Stockholders and Directors of the Company, and determine from that knowledge whether the affairs of the Company are likely to be honestly and fairly administered for the benefit of the Insured.

POLICIES ISSUED BY THE

PACIFIC MUTUAL
ARE NON-FORFEITABLE,
And by the Laws of California,

EXEMPT FROM EXECUTION!

The Company will at any time make AN ADVANCE of Cash on its Policies as future Dividends.

No permits or extra rates required for traveling East or in Europe.

Dividends actually non-forfeitable.

Thirty days grace on the payment of all Premiums.

After two annual payments the Company will, two years after the last payment, issue either a paid up Policy for the proportion of Premiums received, or pay the equivalent in cash.

The rate at which we have been sending money East for Life Assurance will amount, with interest, to at least Ten Million Dollars by January 1, 1870. This sum, enormous as it seems, is totally eclipsed by the magnitude of the interest which the Coast is losing for want of it. For instance: Its yield in the East at 6 per cent, compounded annually for ten years, is $6,952,167 27; here at 12 per cent, for four years, and 10 per cent. for six, compounded monthly, $25,0?0,908 62, or a difference of over eighteen millions!

With these facts in view what Company will likely pay the largest Dividend? The funds of the PACIFIC are all loaned at 1 to 1¼ per cent. per month.

Of this large sum it is computed that Oregon and Washington Territory have contributed about one-fourth. This involves the sending away annually, to keep up the Premiums on Policies already [issu]ed, at least six or seven hundred thousand dollars, which if continued will soon drain the State of all its cash. If to California, it finds its way back here for our productions, a market for which we must look for there.

The applicant need not wait two or three months to know if he is accepted or rejected, but can receive his Policy in less than two weeks, and in case of death the money will be paid to his wife in as short a time.

HYGEIAN HOME
WATER CURE,
637 California Street,
Opp. St. Mary's Cathedral, bet. Kearny & Dupont Sts.,
SAN FRANCISCO.

DR. BARLOW J. SMITH

WOULD RESPECTFULLY INFORM HIS FORMER patrons, and all who desire the professional services of a Hygienic Physician, that he has just returned from the East, after an absence of four months, during which time he has visited nearly all the Water Cures in the Eastern States, and the various Hygienic Establishments of New York City, Boston and Philadelphia; and with this new experience feels more fully prepared than ever to meet all the demands that invalids may justly claim who desire to be cured by this rational form of medication.

In January last DR. SMITH purchased the extensive lot corner of Quincy and California streets, with the buildings thereon, which he has fitted up at great expense, for the accommodation of PATIENTS and BOARDERS, with a greater variety of baths for the cure of DISEASE as well as popular bathing than is to be found in any Water Cure in the United States.

HYGEIAN HOME is the only Regular Water Cure in San Francisco, and by far the most extensive and complete Hygienic Institute on the Pacific Coast.

And we offer to Ministers, Teachers, Lawyers, Miners, Merchants, Mechanics, Farmers, and all worthy persons, especially those who have tried drugs faithfully without being restored, and who are still desirous of regaining health by this rational system of medicine, the hospitalities of our Hygienic Home and Cure. Young men who have become debilitated or lost their health by excessive toil, exposure or enervating habits, contracted through ignorance of physical laws, may with us find more of the encouragement they need, and means that will restore them to health, than elsewhere in California.

There is not one man in twenty suffering from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, or Diseased Liver, Chills and Fever, Dyspepsia, Drug or Secondary Diseases, Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, Impotency or Nervous Debility, Weak or Inflamed Eyes, Bronchial and Catarrhal Affections, Disease of the Heart, Lungs, Kidneys, Constipation, Paralysis, Scrofula, Piles, Inflammation of the Bowels, Chronic and Acute Diarrhea, Stiff Joints, Oak Poisoning, Weak Backs, Hip Disease, Salt Rheum and many other Diseases common to Men and Women, that cannot be permanently cured in from two to six weeks by Water Cure and Hygienic treatment. Not only will they get cured, but they can learn how to keep well when they go to their mountain homes, their mines, their farms, their stores, and all this for one-half what it would cost to take drugs.

Terms $20, by the single week, or $60 for four weeks, Board, Room and Treatment (in all ordinary cases).

N. B.—All suffering from cutaneous diseases are treated in separate baths, which are never used by persons bathing for cleanliness. The greatest care and neatness is observed in this respect. No contagious diseases, such as Small Pox and Ship Fever, treated in the Institution.

We have a separate Medical Department for Ladies, which is attended by a thoroughly competent woman, while the private residence of DR. SMITH, which is connected with the Home, is chiefly devoted to the accommodation of ladies desiring Hygienic medical treatment.

We have for the past ten years made the treatment of female diseases a specialty, and have treated a great number of females, both in the Institute and in their private residences in this city, Sacramento and Oakland, who were suffering from Displacements, Prolapsis Uteri, Uterine Hemorrhage, Sterility, Curvatures of the Spine, Inflammations, Congestions, and ALL NERVOUS DISEASES, together with diseases common to all.

The ease and rapidity with which the varied diseases and conditions above mentioned have been overcome, especially in the vicinity of the Bay, fully warrant us in declaring that there is not one female in a hundred who is thus afflicted but that can be made well and happy in from three to six weeks by thorough Hydropathic and Hygienic treatment at our Cure. From all who have come to us and been treated we have yet to learn a single regret from Husband or Wife of the time, means or trouble they expended in HYGIENIC MEDICATION, for they not only get well, but learn how to keep well.

Terms for Ladies, $20 a week, or $100 for six weeks (Board, Room and treatment).

DR. SMITH gives FREE Lectures to his patients every Wednesday evening, and also lectures before the Ladies' Hygienic Society the first Wednesday in each month.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

R. B. MOORE,	NATHANIEL BELT,
A. L. WALLACE,	G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY,	JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER,	ROB'T RAMSEY,

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

Look at the [blo]ted and disfigured faces and their broken [constitu]tions, disqualifying them for the happ[iness of marriage] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrib[le state thou]sands suffer until death closes the scene. [Their] guardians, friends, attend to those who [illegible] any of these horrible life-destroying [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it be [too late]. It is [illegible] who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] welfare of their friends, to be careful of the [pre]tended doctors who infest all cities, publishing [their] in curing all diseases in a few days, [imposing on the] public by using the names of eminent p[hysicians of] Europe and other places. Be therefore careful [and make] strict inquiry, or you may fall into the [hands of] charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Weaknesses, the consequence of [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the [following] of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scien[tif]ical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark [spots under] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, [noise like] the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [pains] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] proaching strangers, a dislike to form new [acquaintance], a disposition to shun society, loss of [memory, hectic] flushes, pimples and various eruptions ab[out] the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, con[sumption, night] sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are [illegible] under any of these fearful maladies, should not [illegible] sacred [illegible] [fe]licity resting upon them, nor obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give [the] patient a written instrument, binding himself to [a] radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

From Samuel Cassidy, Editor Journal & [illegible]

Petaluma, California, Dec. 14, 18[illegible]

For about twenty years I had used Tobacco in its various forms, and for the past eight years have been an inveterate smoker. Becoming satisfied that the excessive use of this narcotic was seriously injuring my health, I determined if possible to check [the] habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation for [destroying] the appetite for Tobacco, I sent to Portland, [Me., for a] box of the medicine, which I received the [illegible] on the 17th of November. A month has not [passed, and] yet the medicine has effectually relieved me [from all] yearning or desire to use Tobacco in any form. The Preparation is not more difficult or unpleasant to take than to commence chewing gum. I [be]lieve the Preparation will have the promised and desired effect in every instance where it is given a fair trial. Upon that belief and from an honest desire to assist those who wish to break away from the slavish [habit of] Tobacco I offer this testimonial.
